Andrea D'Cruz

46 Dream scene

The brief: Created for a teenage girl with sophisticated taste, this bedroom, in a Sydney apartment, evokes a sense of urban chic, says Andrea D'Cruz, RLD director and interior designer.

Why it works: Black, white and tan form a simple, yet sharp palette. Materials are a mix of smoky polished glass, rich velvets and tactile leathers. The artwork on the shelf behind the bed is a series of photographic fashion shoots, "selected for their energy and attitude". To complete the look, a Ginetta stylised chandelier hangs over the bed. >
